All Employees of Max Fuel Express are required to read this policy. Any violation of this policy can result in suspension and/or termination.

AGE VERIFIED MERCHANDISE SALES

Our locations sell a variety of items which require strict age verification by our employees. These items include alcoholic beverage products, tobacco and related products, and lottery. Review the following provisions very carefully as it is imperative that we adhere to all relevant federal and state laws, and local ordinances.

BEER SALES

As representatives of Max Arnold and Sons, it is imperative that all employees follow the laws regarding alcoholic beverage sales. You must abide by the following rules and laws regarding the sale of all alcoholic beverages.

The majority of our locations have a license issued by the state which allows you, as our representative, to sell beer to customers who are legally permitted to buy these products. A license to sell alcohol can easily be revoked if even one employee does not comply with the laws described in this handbook. In addition, failure to uphold the laws which govern alcohol sales could result in you being charged with a criminal misdemeanor by law enforcement officers.

As retailers of alcoholic beverages, we have an obligation to responsibly uphold the laws of this state. After you have reviewed the material contained in this handbook and discussed it with your supervisor, you will be provided with a document titled "ID Please It's My Job" and you will be asked to sign an Agreement of Understanding indicating that you have read and understood and agree to abide by the Company's rules and policies pertaining to the sale of alcoholic beverages. Any questions you have about this material should be directed to your supervisor, who will be happy to discuss them with you.

AGE REQUIREMENTS AND AGE VERIFICATION

Age is Critical. You must determine that a customer is of legal age before selling him or her alcoholic beverages. The legal age is 21 years old.

ALL Max Arnold and Sons employees must verify ID for any customer is attempting to purchase alcohol products.

No Exceptions!

for their date of birth. If they appear under 40 years of age, you must visually inspect their ID and enter their date of birth into the point of sale.

What is Acceptable ID? In Kentucky, these are the acceptable forms of ID you can use to buy alcoholic beverages.

- * Driver's License
- * U.S. Military Identification Card
- * An Official Passport
- * State Issued Identification Card
- * U.S. Immigration Card

If Customer cannot produce Acceptable ID, place product out of customers reach.

IF THE CUSTOMER GETS UPSET

If the customer argues with you when you ask for ID, explain to him or her that it is this Company's policy to ask for ID when the customer appears to be close to the minimum age for purchasing alcoholic beverages. If the customer remains upset or becomes uncooperative, offer to let him or her talk to your supervisor as soon as possible.

REFUSAL OF SALE

You must refuse the sale of alcohol to anyone who does not have proper ID, an ID which appears to have been tampered with, does not have an ID, appears to have signs of intoxication, or is buying alcohol for a minor(s).

You must always refuse the sale of alcohol to anyone who you determine to be intoxicated by Alcohol or other known or unknown substance

Signs of intoxication include:

Swaying or staggering	Stumbling / bumping into things
Leaning on objects for support	Glassy and/or red eyes
Slurred Speech	Annoying other customers
Difficulty handling money	Overlooking ID in wallet
Customer smells of alcohol	Has trouble focusing

Time is Important. Laws concerning the legal hours of sale for alcoholic beverages also vary from area to area. For the majority of Max Arnold and Sons' stores the legal hours of sale are: Monday-Saturday 6 a.m. to 12 a.m.

Every employee should verify the legal hours of sales for their store with the store manager. Store managers should advise employees of local ordinances regarding Sunday sales.

OTHER

Employees must not consume alcoholic beverages on the premises of a Max Arnold and Sons location whether the employee is on or off duty.

Employees must not give away alcoholic beverages.

Employees must report to their immediate supervisor any violations of these alcoholic beverage control policies by fellow employees.

You are personally responsible for knowing and enforcing the local law on all beer sales. Failure to comply with these laws can result in charges being brought against Max Arnold and Sons, LLC and you as an individual. Max Arnold and Sons, LLC will not be liable for any charges brought against an employee for breaking the law.

- Violation of a Law Regarding the Sale of Alcoholic Beverages will result in automatic termination
- US Immigration Card

How to Check a Customer's ID. You must make the following determinations before accepting an ID as genuine:

- 1) Compare the birth date to the date on your "We Card" calendar. Check the birth year to make sure it has not been altered in any way (erased, typed over, smudged, or cut out and replaced, etc.). Be sure the seal or hologram is present on the ID.
- 2) Compare the photo on the license to the person. There should be a reasonable match.
- 3) Make sure physical characteristics such as eye color, height and weight on the ID match those of the customer.

4) Most IDs are sealed in plastic (laminated) or coated. If it appears that the ID has been split open to make changes, it could be fake.

IF, FOR ANY REASON, the ID is not satisfactory, do not make the sale. However, even if you believe the ID is false, you must return it to the customer. Only a law enforcement officer may take it away from the person.

IF THE CUSTOMER GETS UPSET

If the customer argues with you when you ask for ID, explain to him or her that it is this Company's policy to ask for ID when the customer appears to be close to the minimum age for purchasing tobacco products. If the customer remains upset or becomes uncooperative, offer to let him or her talk to your supervisor as soon as possible.

REFUSAL OF SALE

You must refuse the sale of tobacco to anyone who does not have proper ID, an ID which appears to have been tampered with, or does not have an ID and appears to be under 40 years of age.
