Congratulations to our new Police Officers who graduated last Friday. Chief Faulkner swore in five new officers, Officer Andrew Clements, Officer Victoria Hutchinson, Officer Jami Lawlor, Officer Michael Oliver, and Officer Johnny Phommachack. The formal ceremony was held at Rolling Hills Community Church. We wish them the best as they begin their new jobs protecting our wonderful community.

The City has started a new program to name a street after a fallen veteran who has died in combat. The program offers a street with a street sign in a new residential subdivision development dedicated in the veteran's name. Families that are interested can submit the information by going to our website at www.franklinton.gov and fill out a form under the "I want to" section and "name a street after a veteran" They can also email the information to myhero@franklinton.gov. A local citizen worked with Alderman Beverly Burger to bring this program to Franklin. For more information go to <http://www.franklinton.gov/i-want-to/name-a-street-after-a-veteran>

Reminder: The Departmental Purchasing Agent meeting is February 14, at 8:30-10am in the City Hall Boardroom. I'll be stopping by to help celebrate Purchasing Month coming up in March!
