The Franklin Parks Department experienced a great turnout for the Senior Bingo series at Eastern Flank Battlefield Park. The Bingo series happens every Tuesday in March at 2pm. Attendees can win prizes and free refreshments. The event was posted on the City's Facebook page and the Parks Department reports many at the event heard about it from the City Facebook page!

This past weekend, at the Davis House Child Advocacy Center's Button Ball that featured guest speaker Elizabeth Smart, Detective Andrea Clark was awarded the Child Protection Investigative Team Award! This award was voted on by fellow Detectives around the County along with the DA's office and Child Advocacy Center. Congratulations Andrea Well Deserved! When you see Andrea please congratulate her on this great award!

Franklin Police Officer Steve Chittanavong has been deployed to the Middle East for many months—glad to tell you he will be returning to work next week. Upon his return, we will be retiring the Blue Star Flag we have been flying for him—this flag will be presented to him. We appreciate his service to our country and to our city --- Welcome back!

The Franklin Police Department has four new Officers in training: Joshua Dickall, Kevin Johnson, Tyler Maupin, and Trevin Tolbert (See their bios below). When you see them I hope you will make a point to welcome them to our City team. There will be a Badge Ceremony for them: Friday, March 22, 14:30 hrs, Community Room - immediately after

C Shift's roll call – please attend if possible to congratulate them. They will begin their field training March 24. OIT Wesley Johnson heads to the State Academy March 18 to start his training toward Tennessee POST Certification. He will begin his field training April 14, there will be a Badge Ceremony for him just prior to that. It will be great to have these 5 new Officers in the field!

The Inter-Local Agreement with the Williamson County Sheriff's Office and the Franklin Police Department will go before BOMA next Tuesday. This ties in with what the FLEX Unit is doing with the Brentwood PD and the WCSO—an aggressive push to prevent vehicle thefts & burglaries. The agreement will provide jurisdiction coverage for this joint effort. Everybody is working hard to keep our city safe and we all greatly appreciate these efforts.

Welcome to the following new City team members!
